

DONKEY RIDING

Wey-hey and away we go, donkey riding, donkey riding
Wey-hey and away we go, riding on a donkey

Was you ever in Quebec, stowing timber on the deck?
Where ye'd break yer bleeding neck, riding on a donkey

Wey-hey an' away we go, donkey riding, donkey riding
Wey-hey an' away we go, riding on a donkey

Was you ever in Vallipo, where the gals put on a show?
Waggle an' dance with a roll and go. Riding on a donkey

Wey-hey an' away we go, donkey riding, donkey riding
Wey-hey an' away we go, riding on a donkey

Was you ever off Cape Horn, where the weather's never warm?
Wish to God you'd never been born, riding on a donkey

Wey-hey an' away we go, donkey riding, donkey riding
Wey-hey an' away we go, riding on a donkey

Was you ever in Fortune Bay? See the girls all shout "Hurray here comes Johnny with six months pay," riding on a donkey

Wey-hey an' away we go, donkey riding, donkey riding
Wey-hey an' away we go, riding on a donkey

Was you ever in London town? Where the gals they do come down
See the king in his golden crown, riding on a donkey

Wey-hey an' away we go, donkey riding, donkey riding
Wey-hey an' away we go, riding on a donkey X 2

Optional other verses

Was you ever in Mobile Bay,
Screwin' cotton all the day?
A dollar a day is a white man's pay,
Riding on a donkey.

Was you ever in Canton,
Where the men wear pigtails long,
And the gals play hong-ki-kong? Riding on a donkey.

Was you ever in Timbucktoo,
Where the gals are black an' blue?
And they waggle their bustles too, Riding
on a donkey.

Was you ever in Mirramashee,
Where ya tie up to a tree,
An' the critters do bite we? Riding on a donkey

Was you ever in Timbucktoo,
Where the girl guides dress in blue?
Where they come to welcome you,
Riding on a donkey.

Were you ever in Ottawa?
Strangest place I ever saw
Where the Mounties keep the law, Riding
on a donkey